ANTEK RESTAURANT

Silesia is about gatherings and family feasts. Shared festive meals combined with entertainment are deeply rooted in tradition and are still eagerly cultivated today. In the diet of the inhabitants of Opole Silesia – alongside other regional dishes served at the table – desserts occupy an important place, among which cakes, tortes and locally renowned treats like kołocze and szpajzy taking centre stage. The owners of Antek Restaurant, run by a family business with a long tradition, are well aware of this. They offer their guests special products from their own confectionery and bakery, thanks to which the festive tables at Antek are full of traditional Silesian cuisine alongside magnificent cakes.

The restaurant, located in the centre of the village, on the main street, where old inns used to stand years ago, welcomes both locals and travellers stopping here for a break. After extension and modernisation, the traditional building has taken on a contemporary look and has been expanded to include accommodation with comfortable rooms, additional banquet halls, and Jaglo Confectionery, offering a wide range of confectionery products based on its own recipes, using the highest quality natural ingredients.

Antek Restaurant offers traditional cuisine and the homely atmosphere of a family business that has been running for four generations, remaining faithful to regional Silesian cuisine from the very beginning.

The restaurant, together with the Antek Hotel and the Jaglo Confectionery, is located in Źlinice at 19 Krapkowicka Street. The A4 motorway exit is 6 km away, and the city of Opole is 7 km away. The restaurant is a well-known venue for family and special events, and its cuisine, which has a truly "Silesian soul", delights both locals and numerous travellers. The restaurant has a summer garden, is open seven days a week, provides catering services, and offers gift packages created with passion and heart by chefs and confectioners who use traditional recipes to evoke the flavours and aromas of a family home.
