RATUSZOWA RESTAURANT

The Ratuszowa Restaurant in Strzelce Opolskie, located opposite the town hall, offers a warm, modern interior for cosy meetings, as well as excellent regional cuisine and delicious Italian pizza. The restaurant invites you to enjoy delicious lunches during your work break, exquisite dinners with your family, or romantic evenings on the terrace with a glass of wine.

The menu features a wide range of traditional European dishes at reasonable prices.

The Ratuszowa Restaurant offers a stunning view of the renovated town hall. It organises receptions and corporate banquets, and also provides catering services with the possibility of preparing a personalised menu.

The restaurant's modern interior decorated with old photographs of the city creates an intimate atmosphere.

After tasting traditional Silesian chicken soup with noodles and Opole beef roulade with Silesian dumplings and red cabbage, it is worth setting off to explore Strzelce Opolskie, or visiting nearby attractions in the Opole region: St. Anne's Mountain, the Cistercian Monastery in Jemielnica, or the Park of Sacral Miniatures in Olszowa.
